The festive spirit of Navratri was celebrated at Yashoda Technical Campus with vibrant enthusiasm. Each day of the Navratri was dedicated to a specific colour, with faculty and students adorning themselves in sarees of the designated colours. The celebration aimed to honour the rich cultural traditions associated with Navratri, fostering unity and joy across the campus.

Event Overview

During Navratri, each day symbolizes a different form of Goddess Durga and is associated with a unique colour. At Yashoda Technical Campus, the Navratri Colour Days were observed as follows:

1. Day 1 (Colour: Yellow) - The campus gleamed with cheerful yellow sarees, symbolizing joy and energy.
2. Day 2 (Colour: Green) - Faculty and students embraced green attire, representing growth and harmony.
3. Day 3 (Colour: Grey) - Wearing grey sarees, participants showed respect for balance and neutrality.
4. Day 4 (Colour: Orange) - Orange, symbolizing enthusiasm and warmth, brightened the campus.
5. Day 5 (Colour: White) - White sarees, symbolizing peace and purity, marked the halfway point of Navratri.
6. Day 6 (Colour: Red) - Red sarees radiated passion and Vigor.
7. Day 7 (Colour: Royal Blue) - Royal blue attire reflected elegance and tranquillity.
8. Day 8 (Colour: Pink) - Pink, symbolizing compassion and affection, brought a sense of togetherness.
9. Day 9 (Colour: Purple) - The celebration culminated in purple sarees, representing ambition and creativity.

Participants and Coordination

Faculty members across all departments participated with great enthusiasm, while students joined in, making it a truly inclusive celebration. The coordination team, led by the cultural committee, planned the colour themes and coordinated each day's activities. Dr. A.U. Mohite, Cultural Coordinator, guided the celebration efforts, ensuring smooth execution and lively engagement throughout the week.

Highlights and Impact

Each day began with a brief gathering where faculty members and students shared insights about the symbolic meaning of the day's colour and its association with the nine forms of Goddess Durga. The event enhanced camaraderie among the campus community, creating a sense of shared celebration and reinforcing cultural values.

The Navratri Colour Days celebration at Yashoda Technical Campus was a beautiful reflection of tradition, unity, and enthusiasm, bringing everyone together in celebration and fostering a vibrant campus spirit.
